

House Resolution No. 3546

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators whose exceptional contribution of time and energy has helped ensure that students in local school districts obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Linda Brewer of Gordonville, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as an educator in the Scott City R-I School District of Scott County, Missouri; and

Whereas, on May 18, 2007, Linda Brewer will draw her classroom endeavors to a close in well-deserved retirement after thirty-one years in the field of education; and

Whereas, Linda Brewer has served as a remedial reading teacher and a reading recovery teacher in Scott City schools for the past three years, prior to which she was a first-grade and reading recovery teacher for two years in the South Iron County R-I School District and a secretary/bookkeeper in Clearwater schools for twenty-six years; and

Whereas, Linda Brewer implemented the reading recovery program for the Scott City R-I School District; and

Whereas, a member of the Missouri State Teachers Association and a Girl Scout leader for five years, Linda Brewer is justifiably proud also to be known as the loving mother of Bill Eads and Tebra Essner, mother-in-law of Gerrett Essner, and a soon-to-be grandmother; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri educators as Linda Brewer at momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered down through the years by Linda Brewer and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Linda Brewer of Gordonville, Missouri.
